WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Industry Partners,

Greetings from the organizing team of IAACON 2025!

Warmest greetings from the organizing committee of IAACON 2025. It gives us immense pleasure to invite you to participate in this 21st Annual Conference of the Indian Arthroplasty Association 2025, which is to be held at Lucknow from Oct 31st to Nov 2nd 2025 at Ramada.

The IAACON 2025 will showcase some of the best contemporary practices of all times in the field of arthroplasty and will attract over 1000 delegates and faculty from India and all over the world. The conference will have plenary sessions in the main halls for the consecutive three days and will include orations, keynote addresses, panel discussions, lectures, video presentations, free papers, and poster presentations by renowned national and international experts.

This will be a great opportunity for you to connect and interact with an array of leading Indian and international experts and key opinion makers to showcase your products and services. The unique design of exhibition areas interspersed with the conference halls will ensure maximum interaction between trade partners and delegates. The organizing committee will leave no stone unturned in making your participation a pleasant and highly profitable experience. We once again invite you to participate in this mega event and reserve the premium areas to maximize your exposure.

Welcome on Board.

PLACES TO VISIT

AYODHYA : Ayodhya, located in Uttar Pradesh, India, is a city steeped in religious significance and historical importance. It is revered as the birthplace of Lord Rama, a major deity in Hinduism, and features prominently in the ancient Indian epic, the Ramayana. The city is home to several sacred sites, including the Ram Janmabhoomi temple and Hanuman Garhi, attracting pilgrims from all over the world. Ayodhya's rich cultural heritage, marked by its temples and festivals, reflects its profound spiritual legacy and enduring place in Indian history.

BARA IMAMBARA : The Bara Imambara of Lucknow is one of the most famous monuments in the city. The Imambara is primarily known for its incredible maze, known as Bhul Bhulaiya locally, which is located on the upper floor of the monument. It is said that there are 1024 ways to get inside the maze but only 2 to come out. Also known as Asfi Imambara, after the name of the Nawab of Lucknow who got it constructed, it is an important place of worship for the Muslims who come here every year to celebrate the religious festival of Muharram.

British Residency

PLACES TO VISIT

BRITISH RESIDENCY : The British Residency of Lucknow is a famous historical landmark of this place. It is now in ruins and has been declared a protected monument by the Archaeological Survey of India. The British Residency was the place that served as a refuge for approximately 3000 British inhabitants during the time of the uprising of 1857. Lucknow was center of all British activities during the siege and the Residency became the monopolistic center of the British for almost 90 days. The Residency still has within its walls, the graves of around 2000 British soldiers who died in the Revolt of 1857.

JANESHWAR MISHRA PARK : Janeshwar Mishra Park is a newly constructed park, located in Gomti Nagar, Lucknow. Dedicated to the deceased Samajwadi Party politician, Janeshwar Mishra, the park was opened to the public in 2014. One of the biggest Asian parks, this lush greenery shimmered with floral gardens also offers a handful of activities such as boat rides and children's play area. Besides being a great space for walking and jogging, there are food options at the canteen.

HAZRATGANJ : Hazratganj (or Ganj Market) is one of the poshest commercial localities which is located in the central part of old Lucknow. The locality is a mix of medieval and modern construction and was modelled after London's Queen Street. It hosts several crowded bazaar's (markets), shopping complexes, restaurants, hotels, theaters and offices. The locality is settled adjoining the banks of river Gomti and also other historical buildings including Lucknow Museum. The residential development is very scarce and largely in the form of old kothis and legacy individual houses.

CHANDRIKA DEVI TEMPLE : On the banks of Gomti River, Chandrika Devi Temple is one of the oldest and the most popular pilgrimage sites in Lucknow. Dedicated to Goddess Durga, Chandrika Devi Temple is said to be more than 300 years old. The idol of the presiding deity of the temple is carved out of a rock and includes three heads. This renowned Hindu sacred site in Lucknow also has its mention in various Hindu scriptures, Skanda and Karma Puran. Throughout the year, this famous tourist site in Lucknow remains dotted with a large crowd of devotees.

AMBEDKAR MEMORIAL PARK : Initially known as the Dr Bhimrao Ambedkar Samajik Parivartan Prateek Sthal, the Ambedkar Memorial Park is located on Vipul Khand of Gomti Nagar. It was constructed by the state government under the leadership of CM Mayawati. Built in the name of Dr BR Ambedkar, this public park is also dedicated to many other freedom fighters including Jyotiba Phule, Birsa Munda, Kanshi Ram and Sree Narayana Guru. Although it is not as green, the park houses various statues and structures of great historic importance.

CHOWK MARKET : Chowk in Hindi means market and Chowk market is one of the oldest markets and residential locality in Lucknow. The Chowk market is part of old Lucknow and has quite contracted areas for free driving. This is the place in which you can see the cultural and historical heritage of Lucknow city. The streets have many small business points in which famous Lucknow specials like Chikan clothes, Itra, ornaments, fancy dress materials, and craft items can be bought. Chowk boasts rich cultural heritage of old Nawabi splendid architectural works and modern business houses. There are number of things one can purchase from these markets, for example famous chikan garments which are made in small units.
